Our heritage.

The British Council was founded in 1934. Since then, our organisation has expanded to 200 offices in more than 100 countries around the world.

We create international opportunities for the people of the UK and other countries and build trust between them worldwide. Each year we work with millions of people, connecting them with the United Kingdom, sharing our cultures and the UK's most attractive assets: English, the Arts and Education and Society. We are renowned globally as an authority for our work in English testing and in supporting teachers of English.

Our expertise.

Equal opportunities – we create international opportunities and build relationships between people of different cultures and places. Diversity and equal opportunities are crucial for us. Over 70 examination boards and educational institutions trust us to deliver their exams around the world. We are recognised for our integrity in delivering high-quality exams services and professional English teaching and training. The exams we offer are widely known and recognised by schools, universities and employers in Romania and around the world.

Your assurance.

No other examination centre in Romania can rival our unparalleled 80 years' experience in delivering international exams. Our top quality examination management ensures your students' experience is 100 per cent secure, transparent, positive and fair. You are guaranteed a service which is friendly and accessible to everyone. Our examinations staff is trained to meet our child protection standards and the requirements of candidates who have special educational needs.

Your advantage.

We recognise that for a relationship to be long-lasting, it must be mutually beneficial. The advantage© member scheme is designed to add value to the work we do with our supplier schools with the aim of fostering loyalty.

It is not just about the exams alone, it's about helping schools, teachers and candidates perform to the best of their ability by offering value added products and services from across The British Council to help them meet a diverse range of needs. By partnering with the British Council through advantage, you enter a world of opportunities through the variety of services we offer in Romania: Exams, English, Education and Society and Arts.

Who is addvantage for?

For all schools and language schools that register candidates for any of the Cambridge English Language Assessment, IELTS or Aptis exams organised by the British Council from January 2017 to December 2017.

How does addvantage work?

1. Apply by completing the addvantage application form, which you can download from our webpage
2. Register your students for exams using the block entry registration procedure
3. Pay one collective payment
4. Receive membership benefits at the beginning of the calendar year according to your membership level.

Our membership scheme runs from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2017. The benefits you receive depend on the number of points you get according to the exam levels you registered candidates for.

1 to 150 points	addvantage standard
151 to 400 points	addvantage plus
Over 401 points	addvantage premium

As you register more candidates with us you will enjoy greater benefits, as an appreciation of your loyalty. You can check your ranking with your exam centre: British Council Bucharest, British Council Cluj or British Council Iasi.

The following points are awarded according to the exam level you register candidates for, as a British Council preparation centre.

- ▶ YLE = 1 point
- ▶ KET, PET = 2 points
- ▶ FCE, CAE, CPE = 3 points
- ▶ IELTS = 3 points
- ▶ Aptis = 2 points

Loyalty points

For traditional centres (centres working with us uninterruptedly for the last 5 years or more), loyalty points will be awarded. The number of loyalty points / year is 10 and this is cumulative starting with 2012, when the new advantage scheme was implemented. Points will be added from year 2017 onwards, not backwards.

addvantage Terms and Conditions 2017

General Conditions

1. These terms and conditions define the rules, scope and conditions of participation in the partnership scheme offered by the British Council, hereafter referred to as addvantage for 2017.
2. The addvantage Partnership Scheme is fully owned and operated by the British Council.
3. The fourth edition addvantage will operate from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2017.

Rules for participation

4. addvantage is open to any institution which registers exam candidates as a block entry ONLY through British Council between 1 January 2017 and 31 December 2017.
The Cambridge English exams taken into account are the following: YLE, KET, KET for Schools, PET, PET for Schools, FCE, FCE for Schools, CAE, CPE, BEC, TKT.
IELTS and Aptis candidates are added on the basis of the list sent by the requesting institution at the end of each month, comprising the names of the students who sat the IELTS at the British Council open sessions or closed centres.
5. The offer which particular members of the scheme are entitled to, is dependent of the number of points collected between 1 January 2017 and 31 December 2017, for the exams listed in section 4.
6. To activate their membership, qualifying institutions must complete and sign the last page of these Terms and Conditions and return to the addvantage Manager:

F +40 (0)21 307 9601
E: roxana.ene@britishcouncil.ro
7. Member institutions have the right to cease membership at any point. This should be done in writing to the addvantage Manager.
8. Membership will cease from the point the British Council receives written notification requesting this. At the point of cessation of membership, all entitlement to benefits of the scheme will cease. We regret that any benefits not claimed by 31 December 2018 will expire. They cannot be carried forward.

Group membership

9. Where an institution enters candidates through an “umbrella” organisation such as an Association or a collective group of schools, the “umbrella” organisation shall receive a level of membership and the associated benefits based on the collective number of points earned. In addition, individual schools who are members of the “umbrella” organisation will receive their own standard level of membership, regardless of their contribution to the overall number of entries put through the “umbrella” organisation. Still, only one school must coordinate the entire block entry registrations and keep contact with the British Council exams staff.

Benefits of addvantage

10. In addition to our standard level of service, members will be entitled to the benefits in 2018 according to their level of membership mentioned above.
11. The addvantage logo can be used as per the validity period mentioned in the contract.

Communicating membership

12. Should the member wish to communicate their addvantage membership by any other method whatsoever, this must be agreed with the British Council in writing well in advance
Applications should be made to the addvantage Manager.

Amendments to the regulations

13. The British Council reserves the right to end the programme prior to the date mentioned in section 4 or to extend it beyond this date upon relevant notice.

14. The British Council reserves the right to introduce amendments to these regulations and undertakes to inform the members of the scheme of the amendments by email. Such amendments will be valid and effective as of the date of the notification to the members or at any later date stated by the British Council in the relevant notification.
