

Business English

Advanced B (C1)

Course Information

Our approach

This course integrates speaking, writing, listening and reading skills using a 'communicative approach', as well as grammar analysis and practice. The focus of the course is for you to communicate successfully with others in a business context; this means that error correction takes place at certain points in the lesson, not necessarily every time a mistake is made.

Materials

The student's book used for this course is Market Leader Advanced (3rd Edition) and the topics you will cover are:

- Unit 5: Employment trends
- Unit 6: Ethics
- Unit 7: Finance
- Unit 8: Consultants

What will you be able to do by the end of the course?

This course aims to help you to be able to do the following things confidently, accurately and using appropriate language. Your teacher will encourage you to self-assess your ability throughout the course.

I can use appropriate language to resolve and avoid conflict in the workplace
I can discuss a range of issues relating to employment using a variety of verb structures and vocabulary
I can engage in debates about professional ethical dilemmas
I can use hypothetical language to comment on different approaches to solving a problem
I can clearly address detailed questions in a range of professional situations
I can employ appropriate terminology to consider different financial opportunities
I can identify stylistic differences between formal and informal writing
I can conduct a negotiation and effectively summarise the key points

Assessment and Self-Study

Your teacher will give you 1 assessed speaking task and 1 writing task over the course and will give you written feedback on your performance.

Additionally, you will use the practice file for work in class and at home. The book is only one part of your course – you will also use activities, multi-media resources and other materials which will help you learn.
