

The exams administered by the British Council are recognised as a linguistic competency within the Bacalaureate starting in 2010, according to Decision no 5794/ 29.10.2009, issued by Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sport. The decision refers to a series of exams that evaluate the knowledge of modern languages such as: English, French, German, Italian, Spanish and Portuguese.

The exams administered by the British Council Romania which are recognised by the Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sport are the following:

- IELTS – International English Language Testing System
- PET – Cambridge English Preliminary
- PET for Schools – Cambridge English Preliminary for Schools
- FCE – Cambridge English First
- FCE for Schools – Cambridge English First for Schools
- CAE – Cambridge English Advanced
- CPE – Cambridge English Proficiency
- BEC – Business English Certificate

Students that already hold a certificate must bring a certified copy of it together with an application form to the School Secretariat where they will take the final exam.

IELTS is the world's proven English test for over 20 years. Over 2 million candidates take the test each year to start their journeys into international education and employment. IELTS is recognised by more than 8,000 institutions across 135 countries (3,000 are from USA including Ivy League).

Find out more information about registrations.

Cambridge English Language Assessment offers the world's leading range of certificates for learners of English, taken by 3 million people, in 130 countries and are recognised by more than 13,500 universities and employers internationally.

Increased availability of Cambridge English exams from 2010 through Computer-Based Testing: Opportunities for students to sit for Cambridge English examinations have increased by 50% from 2010, as more exam sessions have been added to the calendar. The increased exam sessions are available to take as computer-based testing. Students still have the opportunity to take the paper-based versions of the test, which will allow centres and schools greater flexibility.

Find out more information about registrations.

The Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sport in Romania now joins the 13,500 organisations who accept the Cambridge English language qualifications as a proof of the English language competency in different situations: admission to higher education institutions, enhanced career prospects or emigration.

Cambridge English Language Assessment offers you the opportunity to choose the exam that best fits your needs from a wide range of tests.

The right exam for you – the full range of Cambridge English exams

- General English (KET, PET, PET for Schools, FCE, FCE for Schools, CAE, CPE)
The General English exams are known throughout the world. They give you practice in using English in a wide variety of contexts, relevant to work, study and leisure activities.
- Professional English (BEC, ILEC, ICFE)
These exams cover the same range of language skills as the General English exams but are ideal if you want to prove to an employer that you can use English in different business situations.
- Academic English (IELTS)
If you want to study in an English-speaking country and you need to prove your ability to follow a course taught in English, these are the exams for you.
- Young Learners English (YLE)
These tests are aimed at children aged 7—12 and provide a stimulating and enjoyable way of assessing a child's level of English.
- Teaching Awards (TKT)
Cambridge English Language Assessment also offers internationally recognised qualifications for new and experienced English language teachers.