

Course description and learning aims | Advanced (CEFR C1-C2)

Summer intensive online course

This intensive course comprises 20 stand-alone lessons, 90 minutes each, over a 4-week period. The lessons are based on British Council in-house materials which focus on developing your language skills through use in practical and engaging tasks in a range of contexts. The materials are provided for you as part of your course.

By the end of the course, you will be able to:

Deliver a short persuasive pitch | Participate in negotiations
Describe different personality types and characteristic behaviours
Talk about your strengths, weaknesses and transferable skills
Relate and respond to narratives

Discuss team roles
Participate creatively in decision-making
Give and respond to advice on personal finance

Deliver short talks on different topics
Write effectively for web pages
Describe trends and interpret meaning in graphs and charts

To achieve these outcomes, you will practise:

Vocabulary for describing books and films
Vocabulary for describing people's character and emotions
Vocabulary related to truth and reliability

Ways of expressing regret
Multi-word verbs in the context of sport
'if' clauses and other structures for offering and counter-offering

Use of future perfect and continuous structures
Proofreading skills | Narrative tenses | Verb patterns and verb collocations
